

These questions will help you study the Bible for yourself. The starter questions are designed to encourage you to look at the text and see for yourself what the chapter is telling you. Read the chapter through before you try to answer the starter questions. If you wish, look at one or other of the suggested further questions.

Chapter section verses	Starter questions	Suggested further questions
1 to 8	1. What did the farmers of the vineyard do when the owner wanted his share of the fruit?	What is the main point in each of the sections? If you have a Bible with cross references, what do you learn from them?
9 to 11	2. What did Jesus say the owner's response would be?
12	3. Why did the religious leaders want to arrest Jesus, and why didn't they do this?
13	4. Why did the leaders question Jesus about tax?
14 to 17	5. What was Jesus' reply to them after looking at the Roman coin?
18	6. Why did the Sadducees ask their trick question?
19 to 27	7. What was Jesus answer to the Sadducees' story about a woman married to seven brothers?
28 to 34	8. Which are the greatest two commandments?
35 to 37	9. What problem did Jesus raise about whose son or descendant the Christ was?
38 to 40	10. What was wrong with the scribes' attitude?
41 to 44	11. What was Jesus teaching about giving money?	