Psalm 23

World English Bible British Edition

In this Psalm written by king David, he shares his experiences of shepherding; he regards God as his shepherd.

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall lack nothing.	What does David say about the LORD?
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.	Where does the shepherd lead him?
3 He restores my soul. He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.	How is David cared for?
4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me. Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.	Why does David have no fear?
5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil. My cup runs over.	What does the LORD do for him?
6 Surely goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the LORD's house forever.	What confidence does David have?
