Psalm 48
World English Bible British Edition

A Psalm expressing confidence in the God of Jacob.

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas; 3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling.	Why does the psalmist say we won't be afraid?
4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, the holy place of the tents of the Most High. 5 God is within her. She shall not be moved. God will help her at dawn.	What is said about the river and the city of God?
6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. He lifted his voice and the earth melted. 7 The LORD of Armies is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge.	What happened when nations raged, and who is with us?
8 Come, see the LORD's works, what desolations he has made in the earth. 9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire.	What works of the LORD are we invited to see?
10 "Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted amongst the nations. I will be exalted in the earth." 11 The LORD of Armies is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge.	What does God command us to do, and what are we told about him?
